1876 . . . . to 1976

Happy 100th

It has the largest agricultural enrollment in the nation, but it has more students studying engineering than agriculture and more studying in other fields than in agriculture and engineering combined.

Such is the academic mix in the centennial year of Texas A&M University, the state's first public institution of higher learning.

The geographic mix has become even more diversified over the past century. When Texas A&M opened its doors Oct. 4, 1876, it drew six students, primarily from Central Texas. It now attracts students from every county in the state, every state in the nation and more than 79 foreign countries.

It has been the fastest-growing university in the nation during the '70s, having increased its enrollment by almost 11,000 since the fall of 1970. It had its largest gain in history last year when registration jumped 3,784, for a total of 25,247 students. Enrollment is expected to exceed 27,000 this fall.

Even with the large enrollment increases, Texas A&M continues to enhance its academic standing. College Entrance Examination Boards statistics, for example, show that entering freshmen at Texas A&M last year scored an average of 1031 on the Scholastic Aptitude Test, 146 points higher than the national norm. More than twice as many of its entering freshmen percentage-wise (40 percent) placed in the top tenth of their high school graduating class. With 148 National Merit Scholars enrolled, it ranks first among public institutions in the Southwest and among the top 25 nationally.

Dr. Jack K. Williams
President, Texas A&M

Texas A&M offers undergraduate degrees in 89 different fields and 203 degree options on the graduate level. These degrees are offered through the Colleges of Engineering, Agriculture, Liberal Arts, Business Administration, Education, Science, Architecture and Environmental Design, Geosciences, Marine Sciences and Maritime Resources and Veterinary Medicine.

Birthday A&M

The university also offers its undergraduate students an opportunity to earn a commission in any of the five branches of military service and continues to provide more reserve officers than any other college or university in the nation.

Additionally, Texas A&M is among the national leaders in research. It invested $39.3 million last year in studies ranging from pollution control to highway safety and energy conservation. Research activities this year are running about $6 million ahead of last year's record pace.

To accommodate its expanded enrollment and diversified programs, the university has made major additions to its 5,200-acre main campus, now valued at more than $300 million. New facilities opened within the past four years total more than $80 million and include a 15-story oceanography-meteorology building, eight-story office-classroom building, 11-story continuing education tower and auditorium complex, a major addition to the student center, a large engineering complex, chemistry annex, a dormitory complex serving 2,000 students, educational television facility, student health center and an athletic dormitory and training facility. More facilities are on the way, including new architecture and science buildings and the first two structures for a whole new agricultural complex to be known as the West Campus.

Texas A&M was founded as a land-grant college with a mandate to help develop the nation's agricultural and related resources. It now also carries sea-grant designation with similar responsibilities to provide leadership in making the most effective use of the nation's marine resources. It is one of only five universities in the nation with such dual designation.

While constantly changing to meet the needs of its students, state and nation through teaching, research and public service, Texas A&M continues to maintain its proud heritage and unique traditions.

Color Aggie Recruits "Blue"

The incoming freshman football class at Texas A&M could be an exceptional group.

Coach Emory Bellard and his staff were highly pleased with the latest crop that was harvested last February.

"We've got an outstanding group, with quality at every position," Bellard said. "It could be as good a group as we've ever recruited at Texas A&M."

The Aggies signed seven of 16 on the Dallas Times-Herald's "Blue Chip" list. Each year the Times-Herald polls the SWC head coaches for a confidential list of the top prospects in the state. A player must get at least four votes to make the "Blue Chip" list.

A&M's seven from the list were running backs Curtis Dickey and David Brothers, linebacker Frank Lemons, linemen Paul Hagerty, Thomas Gregory, Gerald Galloway and Zach Guthrie.

AGGIE HONOR GALLERY

(Analyzing the future is hazardous, especially in college football. However, based on past performances, there are some among the 1976 Texas Aggies who should reap post-season honors. The following are among those.)

ROBERT JACKSON — Senior middle linebacker who finished strongly last year after transferring to A&M from Henderson County JC. Made all-SWC and was defensive player of game in win over Texas. This 6-2, 228-pounder from Houston Smiley could be best linebacker in country.

EDGAR FIELDS — Senior defensive tackle who was all-SWC and second-team All-America last year. Quick, smart, tough, this 6-3, 255-pounder from Austin Johnston is all-America material.

LESTER HAYES — Senior free safety who was all-SWC and second-team All-America last year. Exceptional speed for big guy, this 6-2, 208-pounder from Houston Wheatley should have a super season.

JIMMY DEAN — Senior defensive tackle who was all-SWC last year. He and Fields regarded as best pair of defensive tackles in country. This 6-5, 260-pounder from Lake Jackson Brazoswood is key figure in Aggie defense.

TANK MARSHALL — Senior defensive end who was all-SWC last year. Big and strong, this 6-5, 255-pounder from Dallas Roosevelt could reap national honors this season.

WILLIAM THOMPSON — Senior cornerback who is one of nine seniors going after fourth letter this season. Quick, tough competitor, this 5-9, 180-pounder from El Paso Burges should have big season.

FRANK MYERS — Junior offensive tackle with tremendous potential. Played hurt most of last year but was starting guard. This 6-4, 255-pounder from San Angelo Central could win national acclaim.

DENNIS SWILLEY — Offensive tackle who is another of the nine seniors with three letters. Most versatile lineman on squad, this 6-4, 245-pounder from Pine Bluff, Ark., should have banner season.

GEORGE WOODARD — Sophomore fullback with world of talent. Big, strong, fast, tough, won starting spot as freshman. This 6-0, 240-pounder from Van Vleck could be a super star.

BILLY LEMONS — Senior offensive tackle after fourth letter. Was guard for past three years and played hurt last season. Now reduced from 280, this 6-5, 260-pounder from Pampa could be one of best around.

DAVID SHIPMAN — Senior quarterback who has shaken off injuries and surgery to emerge as solid signal-caller. This 6-0, 205-pounder from Odessa Permian will be key figure in Aggie offense.

CRAIG GLENDENNING — Senior guard who plays with great intensity. Another of the nine after fourth letter. This 6-3, 242-pounder from Celina should cap a great career this fall.

OUTLOOK

Although some gaping holes were left when 24 lettermen departed after last year's 10-2 season, Texas A&M still figures to field a 1976 football team that will be highly competitive both at the Southwest Conference and national levels.

"I know you don't replace all-Americas with all-Americas but we have some good, young talent on our squad and we were pleased with the way they filled the holes during spring training," said Head Coach Emory Bellard.

The Aggies return 29 lettermen, including five offensive and six defensive starters. Of the 29 lettermen, 18 are seniors, 5 juniors and 6 sophomores. Also, 14 are on offense, 14 are on defense and one is a kicking specialist.

The second unit had Russell Mikeska at tight end, George Burger and Cody Risien at the tackles, Mark Burger and Curtis Jennings at the guards, and Kenny Kirk at center. Hardin, who broke a collarbone a week or so before the end of spring drills, is the No. 2 fullback while JC transfer Bobby Mitchell and sophomore Gary Young are the halfbacks.

Then, of course, there is that great group of incoming freshmen who'll be on hand when fall practice starts August 19.

At the close of spring drills, Bellard said: "The offensive line, from tackle to tackle, is a good, sound, solid unit. Tackle Frank Myers is excellent. The other tackle, Billy Lemons, is totally committed. Craig Glendenning and Dennis Swilley are two good guards and Mark Dennard is a solid center . . . Gary Haack is not real big at tight end but he is a thoroughbred fighter . . . Mike Floyd and Randall Teate at split ends are good receivers. . .

"Shipman has regained his quickness after last year's injuries. He's very poised and very confident. Baker needs exposure and playing time. He has very exceptional quickness and an excellent arm. We're going into next fall ready to play both at quarterback. . .

"Fullback is by far in the best shape since we've been here. George Woodard is exceptional and Eddie Hardin came on strong before he broke a collar bone this spring.

"Adger Armstrong and Darrell Smith are disciplined halfbacks with ability. They are very solid. Gary Young and Bobby Mitchell made progress. They have ability but need more discipline.

"Our incoming freshman squad is balanced with real quality at all positions and it will provide a lot of good solid depth."

The Aggies will run out of the Wishbone formation. They'll likely pass more this fall. They'll break the Wishbone at times and they'll employ motion on occasions.

The other returning lettermen are end Stacy Breihan, tackle Steve Spitzenberger, linebackers Jesse Hunnicutt, Grady Wilkerson and Kevin Monk, cornerbacks Charles Bell and Mike Williams and safety Reggie Williams.

After spring training Bellard said: "Defensively, we may not have the impressive statistics that we had last year but we'll have a solid, sound, aggressive defense.

"We're solid at defensive tackle. Returning starters Edgar Fields and Jimmy Dean are as good a pair as there is in the country. And, we have good depth there with Steve Spitzenberger, Johnnie Donahue and Garry Milligan.

"Middle linebacker is solid. Robert Jackson is very outstanding. Grady Wilkerson is also quality but he worked most of the spring at outside linebacker. Jesse Hunnicutt and Kevin Monk both had good springs as outside linebackers. Hunnicutt is very aggressive and is totally and completely 100 per cent. I've never seen him any other way.

"The ends are in good hands. Marshall is proven quality. Sanders, who played at the University of Washington as a freshman and who has been here a year establishing eligibility, has talent. So does Stacy Breihan who lettered last year as a freshman.

"William Thompson is a returning starter at one corner and Mike Williams had a good spring at the other corner. Lester Hayes is a quality player at one safety. Both Reggie Williams and Carl Grulich came on strong in the spring.

THE KICKING GAME — Sophomore Tony Franklin is back to kick placements and should be improved. Punting is a point of concern. Mark Stanley completed his eligibility last fall. Bellard said: "If we can't develop one from our present squad, we'll go to an incoming freshman. Some of them have good backgrounds in kicking."

SUMMARY — Continual improvement has been the story of Bellard's teams at Aggieland. The first one was 3-8, followed by 5-6, 8-3, and 10-2. The 1976 team could prove to be the best yet.

Each surpassed the 3,000-yard mark in total career yardage. All three were four-year starters.

NINE 4-YEAR LETTERMEN AGAIN

Not anyone around the Texas A&M scene.

Last fall the Aggies had nine seniors who earned their fourth varsity letters. That group included running backs Bubba Bean, Ronny Hubby and Skip Walker, center Henry Tracy, split end Carl Roaches, tight end Richard Osborne, defensive end Blake Schwarz, cornerback Pat Thomas and linebacker Ed Simonini.

Now comes 1976 and, again, the Aggies have nine seniors seeking their fourth varsity letters.

The group this year includes defensive end Tank Marshall, defensive tackle Jimmy Dean, linebacker Grady Wilkerson, cornerback William Thompson, safeties Lester Hayes and Reggie Williams, offensive guards Craig Glendenning and Dennis Swilley and offensive tackle Billy Lemons.

EMORY BELLARD

Although he's only been through four seasons as a head coach on the collegiate level, Emory Bellard, the multi-talented coach of the Texas Aggies, has made an indelible mark on the national football scene.

During those four seasons, he completely turned Texas A&M's football program around and now the Aggies are a recognized national power.

Last year, The Sporting News, a highly respected publication out of St. Louis, named him National College Coach of the Year. The Aggies last year became only the third team in the school's history to win as many as 10 games. They won a share of the Southwest Conference crown and were ranked as high as No. 2 in the nation.

The Aggies' football progress under Bellard has been a continual thing. His first club in 1972 had a 3-8 record. Then came a 5-6 year, followed by 8-3 and 10-2.

The first thing Bellard did when he became athletic director and head football coach at A&M in December of 1971 was to assemble a staff of highly competent and competitive assistant coaches. Then, Bellard and his aides started a yearly ritual of recruiting outstanding high school and junior college prospects.

Excellent recruiting and thorough coaching are Bellard trademarks and now Texas A&M has a football program that is solid from top to bottom, with outstanding talent through all four classes.

Those who knew his background are not the least bit surprised that Bellard has had great success with his program at Aggieland. They predicted it from the outset, pointing to his track record that was among the best in the land.

Prior to coming to A&M, Bellard had spent five years as an assistant at the University of Texas and it was there, in the summer of 1968, that he drew up the Wishbone formation. But, he had already established himself as one of the all-time great coaches in the state's ultra-tough high school program.

During a 15-year stretch at three high schools — class B Ingleside, 3A Breckenridge and 4A San Angelo Central — he posted an unbelievable record of 139 wins, 34 losses and 3 ties. He won 11 district titles, two regionals in class B, two outright state titles and a share of a third.

The last state title was at San Angelo in 1966, the same year that he served as president of the Texas High School Coaches Association.

A native of Luling, Tex., Bellard was graduated from Aransas Pass High School and then earned a bachelor's degree in physical education at Southwest Texas State in San Marcos in 1949.

He was an assistant coach at Alice, Tex., High School for three years prior to launching his 15-year career as a high school head coach.

It takes a man of many skills to build a successful college football program. It requires additional talent to administer over a major college athletic department with a budget that exceeds $2 million. The steadily improving program in all sports at Texas A&M University is proof enough that Bellard has the necessary talent and skills.

His greatest attribute may be self control. Despite the many demands for his time and talents in this fast-paced world of collegiate athletics, he maintains a calm and thoughtful disposition that belies a great competitiveness and a burning desire to win.

Bellard and his wife, the former Mary Kay Watkins, have three children: Emory Jr., 25; Debra Lynn, 24 and Bob, 15.

MARVIN TATE
Associate Athletic Director

A mountain of paper work is required for such a large and complex operation as Texas A&M's Athletic Department, and as associate athletic director, Marvin Tate is the department's prime administrator.

Working closely with Athletic Director Emory Bellard, Tate is primarily responsible for all sports except football and his office handles most of the paper work for that sport.

Such items as scholarship papers, Southwest Conference and NCAA correspondence, television commitments, team travel, etc., are among his responsibilities.

Tate is in his tenth year as A&M's associate athletic director.

Born in Abilene, Texas, Tate was a standout football guard and baseball catcher at Abilene High. He was a two-time all-state footballer and led the baseball team to the state finals.

He lettered three years at guard for Texas A&M and was graduated in 1955 with a degree in business administration. He was a sales representative for IBM Corp. in Houston and them joined Paine, Webber, Jackson and Curtis Investment Co. in Houston as a registered representative.

Tate is married to the former Kay Callaway of Corpus Christi. They have four children, sons Marvin II, 22, Gary, 20, and Tracy, 11, and daughter Jana, 17.

WALLY GROFF
Assistant Athletic Director for Business Affairs

Wally Groff joined the Texas A&M Athletic Department in December, 1966, as athletic business manager. In January, 1975, he was promoted to assistant athletic director for business affairs.

Groff's responsibilities include budgeting, purchasing, payroll, ticket sales and maintenance.

He was born in San Antonio and was graduated from Central Catholic High there. He received his bachelor's degree from Texas A&M in 1964 and his master's degree in 1965. He worked for the A&M Engineering Experiment Station before joining the Athletic Department.

Groff is married to the former Patricia Ann McBrearty of San Antonio. They have three children, daughter Donna, 12, and sons David, 7, and Denis, 2.

MELVIN ROBERTSON
Assistant Head Coach & Defensive Coordinator

Melvin Robertson joined the Texas A&M staff in January, 1972, as Defensive Coordinator. He was given the additional title of Assistant Head Coach in January, 1975.

Robertson was born May 25, 1930, in Floydada, Texas, and was graduated from Floydada High School in 1946. He played football and ran track for West Texas State University in Canyon, Texas, and received a bachelor's degree in 1950.

His first coaching job was as an assistant at Stanton High School in 1951. He compiled a 16-4 record as head coach at Stanton in 1953-54. THE AGGIE BAND

Heartbeat of the Spirit of Aggieland, "does the impossible—perfectly," "makes the NYC Rockettes buckle down on their precision" and "thunder and blazes under tasteful restraint."

Viewers regularly attempt to describe the Texas Aggie Band, which just keeps coming back "making the best better."

Without frills, flags or fanfare, the 300-strong military organization provides a pulse-quickening drill that has earned applause of rival SWC bandmen, envy of other directors and "the epitome of military marching style" from a Delaware director.

The Aggie Band moves onto the field playing "The Aggie War Hymn" and closes each drill with its trademark block "T", to the famous fight song. Maneuvers in between are the result of five one- to two-hour practices a week. Aggie Bandmen finish classroom and lab work first. They wear the lyre on their Corps of Cadets uniform without scholarships, music majors or auditions. Their only membership requirement is previous marching and playing experience.

Maj. Joe T. Haney is in his fourth year as Aggie bandmaster, with performances at 28 of the last 34 A&M games including the Liberty Bowl. Associate director Capt. Joe McMullen assists with drills, practice, music arranging and writing, and travel arrangements.

More help comes from the band's military organization, altered this year due to its size. A regiment-level unit for 1976-77 at bandmen's behest, the Aggie Band is composed of battalion-like Artillery and Infantry Bands of two batteries and companies each.

Working with Aggie Band Commander Robert Spiller, petroleum engineering major of Eden, in 1976-77 are six additional cadet leaders. They are Terry Tooley of Vernon, Charlie Briggs of Bryan, Kyle Braswell of Angleton, Chris Roach of Shamrock, Robert Gottlich of Dunwoody, Ga., and Otto Hanneman of Dallas.

On the field direction is supplied by Bill Schwennsen, head drum major of Fort Worth; Jim Ramsey, Artillery Band drum major of Mexia, and Bryan Cummings, Infantry Band drum major of Houston.

The Aggie Band marches in rows 12 men wide and files 25 men deep, with the senior-booted front rank carrying military-type bugles. The band also performs at basketball games, leads Corps reviews and parades and takes part in special campus events.

Because it performs primarily outdoors, the Aggie Band employs heavy brass and percussion instrumentation. Typical makeup includes 30 bass horns, 90 trumpets, 65 trombones, 28 percussion instruments, 20 baritones, 15 French horns and 60 woodwinds.

Spring activities also feature a 75-member Aggie Concert Band and 17-member Aggie Stage Band, drawn from marching band membership by audition. Musical offerings of the two groups are broader. They perform at concerts, dances and dinners.

Aggie Band stereo albums, at campus gift stores, show off the robust sound. The latest, "Live From Kyle Field," features band music and crowd sounds from home games.

SPIRIT OF AGGIELAND

Some may boast of prowess bold,
Of the school they think so grand,
But there's a spirit can ne'er be told,
It's the spirit of Aggieland.

Chorus

We are the Aggies — the Aggies are we,
True to each other as Aggies can be.
We've got to FIGHT, boys,
We've got to FIGHT!
We've got to fight for Maroon and White.
After they've boosted all the rest,
They will come and join the best.
For we are the Aggies — the Aggies so true,
We're from Texas A.M.U.

Second Chorus

T—E—X—A—S, A—G—G—I—E,
Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight! Fight!
Fight! Maroon! White—White—White!
A—G—G—I—E, Texas!
Texas! A.M.U.
Gig 'em, Aggies! 1! 2! 3!
Farmers fight! Farmers fight!
Fight—fight—fight—fight—fight
Farmers, farmers, fight!

"The Spirit of Aggieland" was written in 1925; the words by Marvin H. Mimms, a student, and the music by Col. Richard C. Dunn.

And makes us yell and yell and yell; —
So let's fight for dear old Texas A&M,
We're goin' to beat you all to —
Chig-gar-roo-gar-rem!
Chig-gar-roo-gar-rem!
Rough! Tough!
Real Stuff! Texas A&M

Second Verse

Hullabaloo, Caneck! Caneck!
Hullabaloo, Caneck! Caneck!

So long to the Orange and White.
Good luck to the dear old Texas Aggies,

The eyes of Texas are upon you,
That is the song they sing so well,
So, good-bye to Texas University,
We're goin' to beat you all to —

The War Hymn was written by J. V. (Pinky) Wilson, former student, while standing guard on the Rhine with the AEF, after World War I.

Aggies Always Stand, As 12th Man

(The indominable Spirit of Aggieland, famous the world over, perhaps is exemplified best in the classic story of the 12th Man, how an Aggie was called out of the stands to help his team in a moment of need. This colorful story has been told and retold to generations of freshmen at Texas A&M University and it is a part of the cohesive substance that binds A&M students together forever.

There have been many conflicting stories about the origin of the 12th Man story. Therefore, to clear the records, we asked the original 12th Man himself, Dr. King Gill of Corpus Christi, to give us the facts.

— The Editor)

By E. KING GILL, M.D.
Corpus Christi, Texas

It was in January, 1922, following the 1921 football season. The Aggies were SWC champions and had been invited to play Centre College in what was then called the Dixie Classic in Dallas.

I had played on the football team but was on the basketball team at that time and those in charge felt I was more valuable to the basketball team.

I was in Dallas, however, and even rode to the stadium in the same taxi with Coach Dana X. Bible. I was in civilian clothes and was not to be in uniform. Coach Bible asked me to assist in spotting players for the late Jinx Tucker (sports editor of the Waco News-Tribune) in the press box.

So, I was up in the press box, helping Jinx Tucker when, near the end of the first half, I was called down to the Texas A&M bench. There had been a number of injuries but it was not until I arrived on the field that I learned that Coach Bible wanted me to put on a football uniform and be ready to play if he needed me.

There were no dressing rooms at the stadium in those days. The team had dressed downtown at the hotel and travelled to the stadium in taxi cabs. Anyway, I put on the uniform of one of the injured players. We got under the stands and he put on my clothes and I put on his uniform. I was ready to play but never was sent into the game.

THEY WENT THAT-A-WAY

There have been a number of one-sided games involving the Texas Aggies since A&M started playing football back in 1894.

The Aggies hold the edge, by a wide margin, in one-sided games. The most points ever scored against the Aggies was 56 by Ohio State in 1970. A&M's widest point spread came in 1920 when the Aggie battered Daniel Baker, 110-0.

In the point-spread, below are the top 10 victories and defeats of all time.

VICTORIES

Rank	Year	Opponent	Score
1.	1920	Daniel Baker	110- 0
2.	1917	Dallas University	98- 0
3.	1916	Missouri Mines	77- 0
4.	1919	Sam Houston	77- 0

AGGIE HEART AWARD

The Aggie Heart Award is the most coveted and cherished honor given each year at Texas A&M's football awards ceremony.

It goes to a senior who has completed his football eligibility and it is decided by a vote of the entire football squad.

All of the past winners have been outstanding football players but the award is not based on football ability alone.

It is based more on such intangibles as effort, desire, determination, courage and competitiveness.

The winner usually is one who exerts himself to the fullest every time he dons his football gear, whether it be in practice or in a game.

Usually he is one who plays with pain and who plays with all-out enthusiasm and dedication regardless of what the score might be.

GAME NO. 1

VIRGINIA TECH

Sept. 11 — College Station

4 p.m.

Rondal Davis

VIRGINIA TECH OUTLOOK

If it's what's up front that counts, Virginia Tech should continue to improve in 1976. After losing the first two games in 1975, the Gobblers rebounded to a fine 8-3 record including road wins over Auburn and Houston.

Coach Jimmy Sharpe will start with more experience in both the offensive and defensive lines than in either of the last two seasons.

Among the senior leaders in 1976 will be offensive tackle Rondal Davis, defensive tackle Tom Beasley and defensive ends Keith McCarter and Stuart Patterson. Some of the stalwarts are still underclassmen like sensational running back Roscoe Coles and ironman linebacker Rick Razzano.

Tech's major problems will include having to replace most of the defensive secondary, replacing game-breaking quarterback Phil Rogers and finding replacements for both kicking specialists.

"We're slowly, but surely, accumulating more and more quality players," Sharpe says, "but the best thing we have going for us is total squad morale — a truly exceptional willingness of everyone to do whatever it takes for us to win, plus a sincere belief by all that we have proved to ourselves that we can and will win. Overall, I'm confident that we have a much firmer base than in the past."

If quarterback Mitcheal Barnes executes as well in '76 as he did as an alternate in '75, and if the Gobblers establish a right halfback to complement Coles, Tech's Wishbone attack should be as effective as last year.

GAME NO. 2

KANSAS STATE

Sept. 18 — College Station

4 p.m.

Gary Spani

KANSAS STATE OUTLOOK

If Kansas State can come up with an offense to go with its stingy defense, coach Ellis Rainsberger feels his Wildcats could be much improved over their 3-8 record last year.

Seven starters return from a defensive unit which held Texas A&M, Nebraska and Oklahoma to a total of four touchdowns. Top names are linebackers Gary Spani and Carl Pennington, defensive ends Vic Chandler and Perry Viers, tackle Roy Shine, safety Marvin Switzer and cornerback John Andrews. "I feel we have four or five of the best football players in the league at their respective positions," Rainsberger says.

After experimenting in the spring on some veer-type action from the Slot-I, Rainsberger expects the offense to be more productive in 1976. A big plus will be more experience as 10 starters return on offense including the entire backfield.

Big seasons are expected from quarterback Joe Hatcher, fullbacks Verdell Jones and James Couch and tailbacks Roscoe Scobey, Kerwin Cox and Carlos Whitfield.

"We're hoping our offensive line will be more mature, plus bigger and stronger. The offensive line's improvement is very important to the improvement of the overall football team."

If that progress shows up and if the defense continues to play as it did a year ago, Kansas State will be a formidable opponent in 1976.

GAME NO. 3

UNIVERSITY OF HOUSTON

Sept. 25 — Rice Stadium, Houston

7:30 p.m.

Val Belcher

HOUSTON OUTLOOK

The 1976 season will be the first for the University of Houston in Southwest Conference title competition, but the Cougars will have to have an improved defense, more consistent play at quarterback and fewer injuries to be a title contender.

Thirty-one lettermen return from the 1975 team, the youngest ever to play for the Red and White. All eleven defensive starters are back and eight offensive first team players return from the 2-8-0 club.

UH Head Coach Bill Yeoman, the veer-T innovator who is in his 15th season as Cougar head man, says, "We have to be somewhat cautious about being too optimistic about the upcoming season, but we should be improved. Our younger kids have a season under their belts.

"They have a much better idea of what has to be done and how to go about doing it. We don't plan any drastic changes in our basic offensive and defensive alignments from last season. Our defensive unit will have to play substantially better though, this season.

"We are looking forward to being in the Southwest Conference race this year and getting out of limbo. That five-year waiting period hurt fan enthusiasm. We lost our identity and whatever glamour there was to being an independent."

UH's nucleus is built around players like: Val Belcher, a 252-pound offensive tackle; Wilson Whitley, a 268-pound defensive tackle; Paul Humphreys, a two-year starter at linebacker; Don Bass, a tight end who led the team in receiving last year with 38 catches for 646 yards; fullback John Housman, the leading ground gainer the past two seasons; and linebacker David Hodge, a sophomore slated for future stardom.

Bob Blackman

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS

Oct. 2 — Champaign, Ill.

1:30 p.m.

Kurt Steger

ILLINOIS OUTLOOK

The Fightin' Illini under Coach Bob Blackman should be one of the main challengers for third place behind co-favorites Michigan and Ohio State in the Big Ten football race this fall.

Twelve of Blackman's starting 22 of last season return for the '76 campaign.

And, you can expect the Illini to be double-tough on defense as eight of those 12 returning starters are on the defensive unit. Some of the more notable defenders include seniors John DiFeliciantonio and Dean March in the line; junior John Sullivan and senior Scott Studwell at linebackers; junior rover Rick Williams, senior safety Jim Stauner and junior halfback Bill Cerney.

Among the few veterans on offense is junior quarterback Kurt Steger who threw for more than 1,100 yards last year as a sophomore.

But, Blackman must virtually rebuild the offensive unit, both up front and in the backfield. That will be done, no doubt, in fine style, as the Illini return 32 of 42 lettermen from last year's squad.

One phase of play that should be truly outstanding is the kicking game. Both Dan Beaver and Phil Vierneisel return for their fourth seasons. Beaver needs only 40 points this fall to become the school's all-time top scorer while Vierneisel is en route to eclipse every punting record in the Illini record book.

Illinois last year was 5-6 overall and had a 4-4 reading in Big 10 play, good enough to share third place in the league's final standings.

Last year, in the first meeting ever between the two teams, Texas A&M beat Illinois, 43-13, in a regionally televised game at College Station.

TEXAS TECH

Oct. 9 — College Station

1:30 p.m.

Tommy Duniven

TEXAS TECH OUTLOOK

Rebuilding the secondary, finding adequate depth in the defensive line and coming up with a tight end to replace Pat Felux are the key problems facing Coach Steve Sloan as he begins his second year at Texas Tech.

The main strength of the team will be the overall returning experience of the offensive unit. Four of the five starting offensive linemen return and the entire starting backfield is back.

In all, Tech returns 37 of 48 lettermen, including eight offensive and five defensive regulars.

Tommy Duniven and Rodney Allison split time at quarterback last season and both had good springs so the battle continues next fall. Sloan is happy with either on the field.

Tech last year won four of its last five games for a 6-5 overall finish. And, the Raiders established a Tech total offense record for a season by rolling up 4,403 yards, an average of 400.3 yards per game.

It would appear that Tech will be even more fearsome on offense during the 1976 campaign.

And, if the defense makes some strides, look for the Red Raiders to make a strong and serious bid for the Southwest Conference title.

GAME NO. 6

BAYLOR UNIVERSITY

Oct. 16 — College Station

1:30 p.m.

Gary Gregory

BAYLOR OUTLOOK

Look for the Baylor Bears to make their presence felt during the 1976 Southwest Conference football race.

After winning the title in 1974, the Bears dropped to an overall 3-6-2 mark and a 2-5 SWC record last fall.

But, the Bears surely will be back in 1976.

Coach Grant Teaff has the manpower and the talent to make things hot for all foes in '76.

There are 38 lettermen on hand, including eight offensive and seven defensive starters.

Heading the list of offensive returnees are tailback Cleveland Franklin who established a Baylor single-season rushing mark of 1,112 yards last fall; quarterbacks Mark Jackson and Charlie Parker; tight end Ronnie Lee and a fine group of linemen headed by center Gary Gregory and guard Rell Tipton.

Defensive standouts returning include all-SWC rover Ron Burns; linebacker Tim Black and secondary men Gary Green and Mike Nelms.

Only at left tackle, split end and fullback on offense are starters missing. On defense, the gaps are at left tackle, nose guard, right end and safety.

Due to an adjustment in schedules to allow all SWC teams four home and four road games with the addition of Houston to the league, Baylor will play for the second straight year at A&M's Kyle Field this fall.

GAME NO. 7

RICE UNIVERSITY

Oct. 23 — College Station

1:30 p.m.

Tommy Kramer

RICE OUTLOOK

Homer Rice makes his SWC coaching debut with the Rice Owls this fall and he has enough experience around to cause some early surprises.

The Owls return 44 lettermen, including seven offensive and four defensive starters.

The offensive starters include tackle Danny Johnson, guard Steve Moore, center John Stanfield, tight end Kenneth Roy, flanker Larry Edwards, quarterback Tommy Kramer and running back James Sykes.

The defensive starters are tackles Brian Seely and Jeff Rose, linebacker Mark Bockeloh and safety Randy Piel.

The Rice offense is called the Triple Pocket Combination. It has split running backs with split end, tight end and wingback. Rice will employ a 4-3 defense with variables.

Last year the Owls were 2-9 for the season and had a 1-6 reading in Southwest Conference play.

Look for the Owls to stress the passing game because of the presence of QB Kramer. Last year Kramer ranked ninth in the nation among quarterbacks for passing and 12th in total offense.

The Aggies and Owls are now playing much earlier than in the past. The new SWC schedule alignment has the Owls as A&M's mid-season foe, or game No. 7, whereas in the past it was the next-to-last game around mid-November.

Ron Meyer

GAME NO. 8

S.M.U.

Oct. 30 — Cotton Bowl, Dallas

1:30 p.m.

Ricky Wesson

S.M.U. OUTLOOK

The SMU Mustangs will sport a new look in 1976 with a new coach and a new formation. Ron Meyer is the new coach and the "I" is the new formation.

Meyer, who had a 27-8 record the past three seasons at the University of Nevada at Las Vegas, inherits an SMU club that was 4-7 last year and an offense that returns only three starters.

The defense returns six starters, but Mustangs defenders ranked last in the league the past two seasons.

Meyer's main concerns will be patching up an offensive line that lost six of the seven starters and indoctrinating a team to the "I" that was totally recruited and trained in the Wishbone.

At the close of spring training, Meyer said: "I was quite pleased with the progress from a personnel standpoint and from a staff standpoint. Our team is stronger, bigger, faster and more aggressive than when we arrived on the scene in February."

SMU returns 37 of 60 lettermen including six defensive and three offensive starters. Quarterback Ricky Wesson is a game-breaker with talent. Top hand on defense is linebacker David Bostick, a transplanted fullback. The other studs on offense are tackle Jim Duggan and running back Arthur Whittingdon.

SMU, as they say, has the hosses. Ron Meyer might just prove to be a very, very capable jockey, too.

GAME NO. 9

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS

Nov. 13 — Little Rock

3:20 p.m. (TV)

R. C. Thielemann

ARKANSAS OUTLOOK

Some 28 seniors are gone from last year's team that went 9-2 in the regular season, staged a late-season surge to gain a share of the Southwest Conference title, and capped a six-game winning streak with a 31-10 win over Georgia in the Cotton Bowl.

Only four starters return on offense but the forward wall, studded with three solid veterans, is a bulwark of strength. Very limited experience returns at quarterback, and some wide receivers must be developed. Barring injuries, excellent depth and quality is available at the running back positions. Seven starters are back on defense, spearheaded by two of the finest defensive ends in the country. The kicking game is solid.

Arkansas will operate from the twin veer formation, the same style of attack that led the SWC in rushing with 3,523 yards, setting a new team record by some 608 yards. Up front, Arkansas has three men who have been starters since their freshman year in 1973 — center R. C. Thielemann and tackles Greg Koch and Gerald Skinner — all of whom received all-SWC recognition last year. Thielemann was switched from guard to center this spring, and is a strong all-America candidate there.

On defense, Arkansas is in its fourth year of the basic 5-2 with some even fronts mixed in. The 1975 Razorbacks earned a reputation for a swarming, aggressive, opportunistic defense which finished first in the SWC in fewest points allowed. End Johnnie Meadors is an all-America candidate, and his counterpart, Dennis Winston, has forged a reputation as an awesome defensive player. Mark Lewis and Harvey Hampton return at the tackles, and Curtis Townsend is a returning starter at linebacker.

Mike Renfro

TEXAS CHRISTIAN OUTLOOK

TCU could start making its move under Coach Jim Shofner in 1976.

The Frogs broke a 20-game losing streak by whipping Rice, 28-21, in the final game last season and they're eager to taste more victories this fall.

TCU returns 37 of 53 lettermen, including five offensive and seven defensive starters.

The Frogs, who operate from the pro set, will have a very capable field general in quarterback Jimmy Dan Elzner and a fine back-up man in Steve Bayuk. Elzner, who backed up Lee Cook the past two years, is a strong dropback passer with one of the finest arms in TCU history.

The receiving corps is excellent again. All-America candidate Mike Renfro is back at split end. The return of Gary Patterson, a '74 starter who missed all of last year with an injury, and '75 starting flanker Vernon Wells give the Frogs an abundance of targets for the aerial attack.

But, what might bolster the Frogs more than anything is the fact that seven starters return on defense and the front four remains intact.

There are some question marks, like at running backs, linebackers and the kicking game.

But, the Frogs should be a lot more competitive in 1976 and are apt to whip anyone they face.

The Aggies last year had a close call before getting a 14-6 decision at Fort Worth. Another close, tough battle is anticipated when the Frogs come to College Station this year.

TEXAS OUTLOOK

Texas has only one problem of any consequence going into the 1976 season and that is at quarterback. The 'Horns lost a lot of talent and experience when Marty Akins completed his eligibility last fall.

Ted Constanzo, who played a little last year when Akins was injured, appears to be the man who'll take over. One thing that'll help him is the fact he'll be surrounded by outstanding talent.

Texas returns 32 lettermen, including eight starters on offense and 10 starters on defense.

In addition to Akins, Texas lost guard Will Wilcox and tackle Bob Simmons from its starting lineup on offense. Only rover Fred Sarchet is gone from the starting defensive unit.

If the Texas quarterbacking problem is solved early — and experience may be the only way for it to really improve — then look for the Longhorns to make a strong bid for the national championship.

Everything else is on hand. A tremendous defense, strong offensive line, outstanding running back and an excellent kicking game.

The 'Horns last year had a 10-2 overall mark and a 6-1 league record. The two losses were to Oklahoma and to Texas A&M. Still they gained a share of the SWC title along with A&M and Arkansas.

Early Look At A&M Basketball

After two consecutive Southwest Conference championships, Texas A&M coach Shelby Metcalf will be starting nearly from scratch 1976-77. The entire starting lineup is gone — three by expiration of eligibility and two by conference suspension.

The only returnees are 6-7 senior Steve Jones, 6-8 sophomore Wally Swanson and 6-5 sophomore Joey Robinson. Jones averaged 6.2 points per game while Swanson chipped in 6.4 and Robinson 3.5.

Metcalf will have a difficult task replacing two-time SWC Player of the Year Sonny Parker, All-SWC Barry Davis and steady co-captain Ray Roberts. Outstanding freshmen Karl Godine and Jarvis Williams were declared ineligible by the Southwest Conference late in the season and will miss the 1976-77 season.

For the Aggies to be competitive in the coming season, a great deal of help must come from five freshmen and two junior college transfers.

The freshmen are 6-4 John Schlicher from Fort Worth Paschal, 6-4 Steve Sylestine from Clear Lake, Sonny Hammond, 6-5 from Miami, Fla., 5-10 Dave Goff from Illinois and 6-10 Doug Pederson from Minnesota. The junior college transfers are 6-6 Willie Foreman from Hill Junior College, and Keith Carter, 6-4½ from Garden City (Kans.) Junior College.

With so little experience and such few players, the 1967-77 season will be the biggest challenge yet for Metcalf and assistants Norman Reuther and Bob Gobin.
